Raise more chicks--our country and our allies need more meat. The quickest way to get it is to raise chickens.

Every woman and every girl should raise chickens and eggs to take the place of pork at home, because the soldiers in Europe must have the pork if they are to win.

If every back lot in all of our large and small cities and towns was utilized and if on every farm there were 100 laying hens or more, we could have all the meat necessary besides adding hundreds of millions of dollars to our country's income.

Remember, it is the singing, scratching hen, that lays the healthy, fertile eggs that will hatch into a strong, livable chick.

This is the year you have got to set every broody hen and raise every chick she hatches as our country needs them. Feed is high and every ounce of it must count.

After this war is over all of Europe will want Poultry and America will have to supply them.
